

The FCC should not implement any proposal that would less the Indiana Privacy Law protections. I used to receive no less than 8-10 calls a day, and at least two of those would be during our evening meal. It is so nice to sit down and enjoy a meal with my family without a telemarketer calling.